Does the increase in information available today make it…

☐ Easier to be well-informed because there are more sources of news that are easily accessed through newer technologies

☐ Harder to be well-informed because people have to sort through lots of information to determine what is true or important

How much, if at all, do each of the following aspects of the news environment today contribute to making you feel overwhelmed by information?

A great deal ▼ A fair amount ▼ Not much ▼ Not at all ▼

a. An increased number of news organizations reporting the news

b. The pace or speed of news reporting – the 24-hour news cycle

c. Technological advances that give you access to news wherever you are

d. News and non-news items mixed together on social media and Internet sites.

When you feel overwhelmed by the information you get, what are you most likely to do? Please mark only one.

☐ Pick one or two sources you trust and only pay attention to those

☐ Try and consult a variety of sources to see where they agree on facts

☐ Rely on friends, family or others to help you sort out what you need to know

☐ Stop paying attention to news altogether

Would you say each of the following is a major problem, a minor problem, or not a problem with news coverage today?

A major problem ▼ A minor problem ▼ Not a problem ▼

a. Too much bias in the reporting of news stories that are supposed to be objective

b. Too much bias in the selection of what stories news organizations cover or don’t cover

c. Owners of news outlets attempting to influence the way stories are reported

d. Not enough investigative journalism to uncover important facts

e. News organizations reporting information they think is accurate but turns out to be inaccurate

f. News organizations being too dramatic or too sensational in order to attract more readers or viewers

g. The spread of inaccurate information on the Internet

h. Increasing numbers of news sources reporting from a particular point of view (such as conservative or liberal) rather than being neutral

i. News organizations not adequately representing the views and experiences of certain subgroups in society

Which concerns you more:

☐ The news that you get might be biased

☐ The news most other people are getting might be biased

Which do you think is a bigger problem for the U.S.:

☐ People paying attention to the news, but only from sources that support rather than challenge their own views

☐ People not paying attention to any news
23. Which one of the following concerns you most when you come across a news report you think might be inaccurate: Please mark only one.
   - [ ] That the facts might be made up entirely by the reporter
   - [ ] That the facts are wrong because the reporter made errors in his or her work
   - [ ] That the facts are correct, but the reporter is misrepresenting them

24. Next we have a question about journalists and their background characteristics, such as their gender, age, race and so on. Do you think news organizations should or should not try and hire reporters with different backgrounds to increase the diversity of their reporting staffs?
   - [ ] Should
   - [ ] Should not → Skip to Question 26

25. Which one of the following is the area in which news organizations most need to hire different types of reporters to increase the diversity of their reporting staffs? Please mark only one.
   - [ ] Gender
   - [ ] Race or ethnicity
   - [ ] Age
   - [ ] Income or social class
   - [ ] Political views

26. Which comes closer to your view about the way the press should be able to cover presidents and presidential administrations:
   - [ ] Reporters should have regular access to White House officials, even when they ask challenging or aggressive questions of those officials
   - [ ] The White House should feel free to ban members of the press if they believe their reporting is not fair to the administration

27. When it comes to covering presidential election campaigns, do you think the news media gives too much, the right amount, or too little coverage to each of the following?
   - [ ] Public opinion polls, including who is leading in the race
   - [ ] The issues that matter most to voters
   - [ ] Major campaign events, such as debates or conventions
   - [ ] The policy positions of the candidates and political parties
   - [ ] The candidates’ qualifications for office
   - [ ] Controversial statements or actions from a candidate’s past

28. Overall, how often do you get news about important current events in the U.S. and the world from each of the following websites or apps?
   - [ ] Google®
   - [ ] Facebook®
   - [ ] Twitter®
   - [ ] YouTube®
   - [ ] Apple News®
   - [ ] Instagram®

Continue »
29 Do you think major internet companies like Google®, Facebook®, Twitter®, and others that show news about current events should:

☐ Put more emphasis on finding ways to exclude false information or hateful expression on their websites or apps
☐ Put more emphasis on allowing people to express themselves freely and avoiding censorship

30 If a major internet company like Google®, Facebook®, or Twitter®, suspects that a posting on their platform was made by a person or organization from another country that was trying to influence the 2020 U.S. presidential election outcome, should the internet company:

☐ Remove the posting, even if they are not certain it came from a foreign actor
☐ Leave the posting up until they can confirm it came from a foreign actor
